Dear friends,

I am writing this letter on behalf of all the DCL members to thank you for your great effort in the organization of the DCL U-21 Futsal that you made last month of October in Warsaw (Poland) with the participation of european clubs.

We have seen good results with good references from all over Europe to the event and we are proud to have collaborated with you, also your support to media section that we had excellent results where you can look attached file. Also we send you our report about the event with all results, teams, photos... for your archive and knowledge.

Please move our congratulations to the all members of organising committee, club MKSN Mazowsze and volunteers for the collaboration that they have made in the competition.

We are happy to work together again for DCL Futsal 2022 in Warsaw.

Thank you!

Best regards

Juan Carlos Basilio
DCL President
